

Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and shared and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Your rights

You have the right to:

- Get a copy of your paper or electronic medical record
- Provide us a written request to have your paper or electronic medical record corrected
- Request confidential communication
- Ask us to limit the information we share
- Get a list of those with whom we've shared your information. This is a list of certain disclosures other than treatment payment or healthcare operations where authorization was not required.
- Get a copy of this privacy notice
- Choose someone to act for you

Your choices

You have some choices in the way that we use and share information as we:

- Tell family and friends about your condition if they are involved in your care and treatment or ask about you by name
- Notify your primary care physician of services provided to you at the hospital
- Provide disaster relief
- Include you in a hospital directory unless you ask us not to
- Provide mental healthcare
- Market our services and sell your information with your permission or utilize it for fundraising purposes

Our uses & disclosures

We may use and share your information as we:

- Treat you
- Run our organization
- Seek payment for services provided to you
- Help with public health and safety issues
- Do research
- Comply with the law*
- Respond to organ and tissue donation requests

Your rights

We are required by law to protect the privacy of your information and notify you of certain breaches of your information. We are providing this notice to you so that we can explain our privacy practices. We will follow the practices described in this notice or the current notice in effect. We reserve the right to change our policies and notice of privacy practices at any time. If we should make a significant change, we will revise this notice and post a new one. You can also request a paper copy of our notice at any time.

My HealthPoint is Wilson Medical Center's Patient Portal. It is an exciting program designed to improve your healthcare and make office visits easier and more convenient. We will disclose demographic, insurance and medical information (collectively, your "health information") to My HealthPoint so that it can be viewed by you. This information will be viewable by you and/or anyone with whom you share it, Relay Health (the My HealthPoint portal provider) and the LifePoint Health Support Center (HSC), acting as business associates of LifePoint Health. Relay Health and the LifePoint HSC have been engaged to maintain, secure, monitor and evaluate the operation of the My HealthPoint patient portal. Relay Health and the LifePoint HSC also will be able to access your health information only for the purposes stated.

Additional Rights Under North Carolina Law:

Some North Carolina laws provide you with more protection for specific types of information than federal laws protecting the privacy of your medical information. We try to comply (where applicable) with all requirements of those state laws. For example: if you have one of several specific communicable diseases (including tuberculosis, syphilis or HIV/AIDS), information about your disease will be treated as confidential and will not be disclosed without your written permission only in limited circumstances as required by law. Reference: NC General Statutes 130A-143, 130A-25.
